

At Home Wine Tasting

So...how does this work?

1. Pour yourself a taste (or a glass).
2. Take a few moments to swirl, smell, and taste it.
3. Use the scorecard to rate the wine and make notes.

Here's to getting exactly what you want and then asking for more. Go with the flow and lean into what feels good. Take this moment to connect with aromas of rose hips and soft vanilla.

Tasting Notes

Enjoy notes of dark cherry, baking spices, and coming together.

Food Pairings

Raclette over roasted potatoes, asparagus, zucchini, and black forest ham with gherkin pickles and pickled onions on the side.

Penetration Cabernet Sauvignon

Let's get deep, pop this cork and jump into the real stuff. Enjoy aromas of candied violet and elderberry on the nose. Cannon ball into the deep end of the bottle and see what happens.

Tasting Notes

Notes of dark cherry, cacao, and pouring your sweet 'lil heart out.

Food Pairings

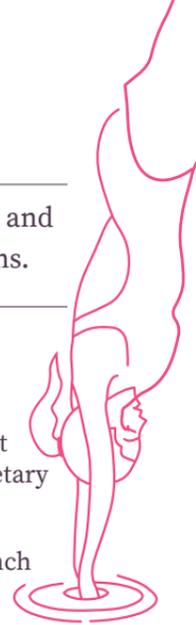

Grilled lamb kabobs served with a tangy chimichurri sauce and wild rice pilaf.

Vixen Syrah

Vixen Syrah is characterized by a very dark, beautiful color. Yes, this full-bodied red wine is fabulous. Don't beg for more, it's unbecoming. If want it, just come and get it darling.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of sweet figs and pipe tobacco swirl in the glass as flavors of white peppercorn toy with juicy overripe cherry and smoky bacon. It's a rebellious combination, but we wouldn't have it any other way.

Food Pairings

Butter and herb pork chops with spiced apple chutney. And if sweets are your thang, pair Vixen Syrah with a rich crème brûlée.

Oh! Orgasmic Tempranillo

This sultry Tempranillo is a full-bodied red wine with dark, thick and fruity notes of earth and spice. Aged for 20 months in a blend of neutral French and American Oak, makes this one of our best red wines. Can we tempt you with a good time? Just say Oh! yes.

Tasting Notes

Whips of spice and pepper on the nose invite you in, while leather and tobacco intertwine in a sultry dance on the palate.

Food Pairings

Delicious by itself or paired with full-flavored cheeses or with grilled meats and vegetables.
